

Indie York Treasure Trail is a fun event with a Medieval and Magical theme. The trails are being held at October Half-Term between Saturday 24th October and Sunday 1st November 2020. Explore York's historic streets, alleyways, church yards and magical corners where you will discover the many independent businesses that cluster together.

Complete just one or several cluster trails. Clues will be found in our Indie business windows along with an interesting mystery object for you to find.

> There are 9 clusters trails in total: Acomb, Bishy Road , Fifth Quarter (Gillygate and Bootham), Fossgate and Walmgate, Goodramgate, Micklegate, The Shambles, Stonegate and Petergate and York Central.

The Shambles cluster are also organising a Ghost Hunt models of ghosts will be hidden for you to search for. Details inside and ghost hunt maps which are also available from all 100 plus businesses participating.

There is a prize draw which will be made from the correct entries we receive. This will take place in early November and we will inform you by email. There are some great prizes to be won. A £500 bike, a holiday cottage weekend and 9 x £50 York Gift Cards. Details inside and on website.

Indie York is a Community Association whose aim is to encourage the public to support independent businesses in York.

> You can find lots more information about Indie York with details of over 200 independents on our website.

INDIE YORK

Acomb

Acomb is a vibrant local shopping area with a really varied mix of excellent Independents. A great place for all your shopping needs in a well-loved local shopping centre.

Bishy Road

Fifth Quarter

Bishy Road is a traditional parade with a very strong independent mix of shops, restaurants and other businesses. In 2015 it was awarded GB High Street of the Year Award.

Gillygate and Bootham is known as the Fifth to the clues will be found on buildings.

Quarter. It has a fantastic range of independents;

a fascinating mix of unique businesses. Answers

Fossgate and Walmgate

Fossgate is one of the most unique shopping and drinking experiences in York and beyond. A real independent stronghold.

Goodramgate

Goodramgate is a street of shopping, eating and drinking, with a history going back to its Viking origins. It's a thriving street with a real mix of indie shops, restaurants and other businesses.

Micklegate

The main entrance to the City from the south through Micklegate Bar. Superb, independently run restaurants, bars and shops line an interesting and eclectic thoroughfare into the city.

The Shambles

The world-renowned historic street that has independents in abundance. Shops, restaurants and businesses packed into this vibrant street. The lively city centre Shambles Market is open seven days a week with a great mixture of traditional and contemporary shops and stalls and some exceptional street food.

Stonegate and Petergate

There is probably the highest percentage of independent businesses on this thoroughfare into the city. Wonderful niche shops, restaurants, pubs and unusual businesses are all there to be discovered.

Central York is the largest cluster that starts at Castlegate, crosses Coppergate, and passes along Coney Street into Lendal, Museum Street and Blake Street. It then stretches across Lendal Bridge to York Station. An area full of large shops and lots of independents.

www.indievork.co.uk

If you take part in the Indie York Treasure Trail you will go from one Independent business to the next answering the clues in their windows.

If you look long and hard you will find a mystery object in each display as well. Write down the name of the business the answer to the clue and the object in the display. Then move along the trail.

There are 9 trails to choose from

The clues at times will be harder than others. But the important thing is to use your eyes to find the answers to the clues.

Social Media posts

As you walk around we would love you to take photos of the shops the clues and the mystery objects as you go. If you could put these photos on social media and share these images. Use #IYTrail and @indie York for maximum effect.

Each of the clusters have their own mini trail with around 10 clues to be found. If you would like to enter our prize draw you will find details on the right hand side of this page.

As well as visiting Independent businesses there are a number of York's attractions taking part. Including the medieval Merchant Adventurers Hall, Jorvik Museum, Bar Convent, Barley Hall and the magical York's Chocolate Story.

Safety First

Our aim is to provide a safe distanced fun event in our wonderful local high streets and City centre high streets for residents and visitors alike. Also to help to make participants aware of the huge variety of Independent businesses there are in York during the Autumn of 2020 when Covid safe distancing restrictions are in place.

The Little Yorr GHOST HUNT Seer & Keep

Monday 26th - Friday 30th October As darkness falls the York Ghost Merchants invite you to join the search each evening between 5pm and 7pm for Little York Ghosts along the atmospheric ancient streets that surround York Minster.
